LOS ANGELES, May 21.—Purchase by the city of Los Angeles of the entire local lines of the Pacific Electric railway was recommended today in a resolution presented to the city council's public utilities committee.

COURT ORDERS R. W. STEWART TO FACE TRIAL

Standard Oil Chief Loses Fight to Nullify Contempt Indictment

WASHINGTON, May 21.—Robert W. Stewart, chairman of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana, lost today his attempt to nullify the contempt indictment against him. He must go on trial here later.

Justice F. L. Siddons, in District of Columbia supreme court, upheld a government demurrer to Stewart's "plea in bar" against the indictment.

Stewart contended primarily in his plea that he purged himself of the contempt charge by a later appearance before the senate Teapot Dome committee, at which he testified fully and answered all the questions he previously refused to answer.

The government contended that Stewart's testimony in April was not given until after he was indicted; that his action in "squealing himself" with the senate committee could not settle his account with the law, which demanded punishment for his recalcitrance at his February appearance before the senate committee.

If convicted, Stewart must serve from one month to one year in jail.

Valley Residents Flee As Reservoir Crash Threatens

SALT LAKE CITY, May 21.—Hope of saving the Pleasant Valley dam practically has been abandoned, according to telephone information received today by the Utah Fuel company, at 1:15 p.m.

All workmen rushed to the dam this morning to pile sandbags against the base of the dam have been moved out of the bottom of the canyon and are working on the north side from a higher level, it was stated.

The creek canyon has been cleared of people all along the route lest the dam might go out without warning.

The dam has shown a leak in the center of the 60-foot wall, but otherwise the situation is the same as at noon.

S. C. HARTRANFT ADDRESSES BUSINESS WOMEN IN FIRST 'GET ACQUAINTED' PROGRAM

Former State Assemblyman Speaks on District's 'Institutions and Cultural Advantages'

SCHOOL FACILITIES STRESSED

"KNOW ORANGE COUNTY WEEK," sponsored by the Register, was launched officially this noon at the meeting of Business and Professional Women's club with address by S. C. Hartranft, former state assemblyman and prominent educator.

Hartranft spoke on "Institutions and Cultural Advantages of Orange County."

Officers of the various Santa Ana service clubs were invited guests of the B. and P. W. club.

The address this noon was the first of a series to be given at the luncheon club meetings during the week. Tomorrow noon Freeman H. Bloodgood, deputy state real estate commissioner, will address the Rotary club on "Natural Advantages of Orange County."

President Conducts Session

Mrs. Jennie Lasby Tesson, president of the B. and P. W. club, conducted today's opening session, during which five minutes were given to Mrs. Edith Ritter, president of the Artesia street school. Mrs. Ritter had a little group of Mexican children with her, who will take part in the school presentation of an opera, "Cinderella in Flowerland." She asked the support of the clubwomen in the feature.

Dr. W. Maxwell Burke, who introduced the speaker, declared in his presentation talk:

"No state in the union is more solicitous of the education of its children than California. And of all the counties of California, Orange county stands second to none. We are a forward looking people and believe that the next generation should be better equipped than the present."

Sponsored By Register

The Santa Ana Register believes that the people of the county should more fully realize what has been done for the education and culture of its youth and to focus the attention of its own peoples as well as the nation upon the advantages of this county in its various aspects has co-operated with the Business and Professional Women's club as a part of "Know Orange County Week" to have this particular phase of our advanced civilization presented by one who by his knowledge, experience and desires is perhaps better able than any other to tell us of the cultural and educational advantages of Orange county, Mr. S. C. Hartranft, of Fullerton.

Hartranft's address, in full, follows:

"Culture implies all which gives the mind possession of its own powers, as language to the critic, the telescope to the astronomer, Culture alters the political status of the individual. It raises a rival royalty in a monarchy. This king against king, it is ever the romance of history, the co-presence of a revolutionary force in intellect. It creates a personal independence which the monarch can not look down and to which he must often succumb."

Dawson described the Smith organization here as "a large volunteer army, working together but not under any active leadership." Dawson demanded to know who had given the committee information that he was Smith's manager here.

Stewart Doesn't Know

Chairman Stewart said he did not know.

Information From Papers

James E. Caraway, Asheville, who was supposed to have important information about expenditures, said he knew nothing except what he had read in the newspapers.

"I don't believe $5000 has been sent in from outside this state," Dawson said.

Robert H. Edwards, sheriff of Wayne county, has spent about $1950 for personal traveling expenses, Dawson said. Edwards had told him. Caraway said he had read that $5000 was sent in for use by the backers of Representative Hull, Tennessee, native son. He did not know who sent the money.

Preserve This Paper. Why?

Today the complete address of S. C. Hartranft, on "The Educational and Cultural Advantages of Orange County," is published in The Register. This address is a comprehensive one and is complete in its information concerning our educational institutions.

Tomorrow the address of Freeman H. Bloodgood on "The Physical Advantages of Orange County" will be published in full as delivered before the Rotary Club of this city.

On Wednesday the complete address of George A. Rappaport, which will be delivered before the Kiwanis Club on the subject "The Industries and Construction in Orange County," will be published in full.

On Thursday the address of Joseph A. Book on "The Orange County Coast Line," which will be delivered before the Lions Club, will be published in full, and on Friday the Governor's address, which will be delivered at a public luncheon in his honor, will be published in full.

We would suggest that the issues of The Register for these days be preserved, as they will be loaded with information concerning Orange County, and in their entirety will make a complete record of Orange County's advantages, which will be valuable for future reference.

DISABLED VETS OF SANTA ANA OFF FOR MEET

Five members of the local organization of Disabled American Veterans of the World War left for Jese today, where they will attend the state convention May 23 and 24. Two other delegates will depart tomorrow night. Two men from this section will be candidates for state offices and the chances for election are said to be excellent by their friends.

According to information received from Harry Edwards, service officer of the chapter, is running for position of state adjutant. The other representatives from Santa Ana are Louis Riehl, senior vice-commander, Edward Struble, vice-commander, Frank J. Kelly, officer of the day, and Jack Wolters, state executive committee member.

The party which left today is traveling by automobile. Gasoline for the trip was supplied by the Station Brothers Super Service station.

Market conditions are firm, with many fruit bringing from $8 to $9 in various markets, it is reported. The season progresses the picking reveals slightly less fruit than had been expected, according to E. King, manager of the Northern Orange County Citrus exchange. However, the quality is good and sales run excellent to meet present market demands, King declared.

TODAY ANNIVERSARY OF LINDY'S FLIGHT

story all the things which have happened to Lindbergh, who is still aged only 26, in those 12 months. Plans Even Greater Feat

But Lindbergh is not content. The anniversary of his flight finds him engaged in plans for what may develop into even a greater feat. He now is studying the feasibility of flying back to Europe via a route which would carry him to Newfoundland, Greenland, Iceland and thence to the European mainland. His purpose is two-fold. First he desires to visit Europe again, and second he is interested in establishing an air route to Europe less hazardous and more practical than the "Lindbergh trail," with its 2000 miles over open and unprotected sea.

It is possible Lindbergh may even extend his 1925 flight into a trip around the world. He probably would fly much of the way, although he is not yet convinced of the feasibility of crossing the Pacific by airplane even by the northern route through Siberia and Alaska.

Expects to Use Ford Plane
His initiative plan embraces the use of a Ford plane, probably more powerful and larger than the "Spirit of St. Louis," and designed especially for such a flight as he may undertake.

Lindbergh has not definitely decided whether he will undertake this flight to Europe, although he is determined to visit those European capitals which he was forced to drop from his itinerary in 1927 because of the clamor in this country that he return to receive his honors.

Whatever flights he undertakes in the future, Lindbergh insists, will be designed entirely for the benefit of aviation. He realizes there is a risk in his pioneering, as in all pioneering, but he looks with disfavor upon any flight which does not have as compensation for the risk involved the definite advancement of flying to which he is so devoted.

COSTA MESA TO VOTE TUESDAY ON ANNEXATION

Costa Mesa and most of Costa Mesa. The boundary lines reach to the head of Newport bay on the east and end at Sixteenth and Seventeenth streets in Costa Mesa.

Two Polling Places
Two polling places have been designated by the Santa Ana city council, which recently ordered the election. Voters of the Delmi district will cast their ballots at the St. Gertrude street school, in South Santa Ana. The voters in the territory north of Sunflower avenue will vote at the schoolhouse. Voters south of Sunflower avenue are in what is known as precinct B and will cast their ballots at the Costa Mesa Women's clubhouse.

M. N. Bollinger and M. F. McKinley will act as judges in precinct A and W. D. Lambert will be inspector. E. B. Minor and Charles Dunn will be judges and J. W. Wherry, inspector in the Costa Mesa district.

There are 1568 voters in the precincts included in the district, according to City Clerk Ed Vegely. Of Santa Ana. All of these people will not be allowed to vote in the election, however, as some reside outside of the limits of the proposed incorporated territory, Vegely points out.

Maps of the territory proposed for annexation will be at each polling place and the election officials will segregate those who reside inside and outside of the district.

Harbor Development Seen
Pro-annexationists are basing their plea for annexation on harbor development, which they feel will follow such a move, better sanitary conditions, better fire and police protection and the growth which they believe will follow the cementing of the two cities.

Anti-annexationists oppose the measure on the ground that taxes would be raised while no material benefits would result.

BIG AIR LINERS AT LOS ANGELES PORT

LOS ANGELES, May 21.—Two of the giant tri-motored Fokker planes, which will be used in the passenger service of the Western Air Express between Los Angeles and San Francisco, were at their home port today. The third, delayed by inclement weather, was expected to join its sister ships here sometime during the day.

The three ships left New York last week, all taking different routes to Los Angeles. No. 1 and No. 2 arrived together yesterday afternoon, while No. 3 was held in Texas.

In coming across the country, No. 1 touched Boston, Buffalo, Chicago, Denver, Detroit and Salt Lake City. No. 2 touched St. Louis, Kansas City, El Paso, Riverside and San Francisco. No. 3 traveled the extreme southern route.

STUDIO FIRE DOES $150,000 DAMAGE

HOLLYWOOD, May 21.—The entire Fox studio was threatened for a time this morning by fire which was brought under control after damaging motion picture equipment valued at $150,000.

Twelve fire departments were called into action before the blaze was checked and but for a change of direction of the wind the studio might have been wiped out.

Stage No. 1, holding a dozen valuable sets, was demolished while another stage and several prop rooms were slightly damaged.

The fire still was burning at 7 a. m., but was completely under control. Studio officials estimated the loss at $150,000. No one was injured in the blaze.

Julian Oil Crash Trial May Reach Jurors Tomorrow

LOS ANGELES, May 21.—The case of seven financiers charged with over-issuing more than 4,000,000 shares of Julian Petroleum corporation stock, thereby causing the collapse of that organization, probably will reach its jury tomorrow.

Counsel for I. L. Rouse, banker, was to finish the concluding argument for the defense today and District Attorney Asa Keyes then was to sum for the state.

Superior Judge Doran declared he would read his charge tomorrow morning and then turn the case to the jury.

The Julian trial, longest in the history of Los Angeles superior courts, started January 5.

RAILROADS WIN UNION STATION BATTLE IN L. A.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—The interstate commerce commission issued an order of "public convenience and necessity" today in the Los Angeles passenger terminal cases, authorizing the railroads involved to abandon certain trackage to the city.

It denied an application by the city of Los Angeles asking that the commission order the railroads to construct a union terminal.

Under existing law, the commission said, "we are not empowered to require the construction of a union passenger station of the character sought by the city."

The commission held, however, it was authorized to find whether public convenience and necessity permit abandonment of the lines in the city, proposed extension of lines and joint use of existing terminal facilities.

The commission's order, in effect, gives the Southern Pacific, Los Angeles and Salt Lake and the Pacific Electric railroads the right to construct the station, but does not actually require them to do so.

The commission rejected an application by the Southern Pacific and the Los Angeles and Salt Lake to construct trackage incident to a joint station plan, known as the Arcade plan, which also was denied by the California railroad commission.

Construction of a union station in the Plaza area of Los Angeles was ordered subsequently by the state commission and the commission's decision today favors that plan by approving tracks required of it, although it holds authority to require the station construction is not within its province.

REALTY BOARD BACK OF SCHOOL BONDS

The Santa Ana Realty board Friday endorsed the bond issue for schools in the Santa Ana district and proffered services of the board and members to the board of education in procuring sites or in making appraisals of property offered as sites. The service will be without charge to the board of education.

It was pointed out in discussions that the proposal for new schools in the city is one of paramount importance in the progress of the city, and comment was made that the board could offer real service to the city through the board of education by tendering its good offices in site matters without compensation.

U. S. Prosecution Of Spreckels Is Seen As Unlikely

SAN FRANCISCO, May 21.—Claire Spreckels, San Francisco, and San Diego millionaire, probably will not be prosecuted for violation of the Mann act in connection with the trips he and Hertha "Babe" Kathas are said to have made to New York and Seattle.

George M. Naus, acting assistant U. S. attorney here declared today that prosecution of Spreckels would be "a possible abuse" of the act.

"This office is ready to vigorously prosecute any act in the spirit and purpose of the so-called Mann act," said Naus, "and it is just as ready to guard that statute from abuse."

"The Kathas-Spreckels case is closed so far as I'm concerned."

Watchmaking requires quiet, good light, ventilation and above all a reasonable amount of brains. At least one has to know enough to know where he is bothered. Up here we know we are not bothered and can devote all our time and attention to one thing—YOUR TIMEPIECE.

RELIEF CREWS DRIVEN FROM MINE BY FIRE

originally trapped by the blast. Still Held Hope

Glasgow held to the hope that some of the main group of miners in butt 14, where it was thought the gas exploded, might yet be found alive.

"If the men have air they are still alive," said John Ira Thomas, deputy mine secretary, in charge of the bituminous section.

But rescue workers were more dubious about the chances of life within the subterranean chambers. The rescuers saw little possibility of survivors existing nearer the explosion.

Fourteen made their way to safety a few hours after the explosion. There is the possibility that other may have escaped from the mine and have failed to report.

But 14 was the objective of the relief crews. Mine officials said approximately 100 men of the night shift would have been at work in the compartment.

The rescuers found most of the bodies of the crew which was leaving the workings for the day in Butts 11 and 12. The relief men reached Butt 13, nearer the location of the blast. The bodies were found badly charred and torn.

Gas Believed Blast Cause
State mine officials were of the opinion that the explosion originated from gas.

During the day and night ambulances, and automobiles were kept busy taking bodies from the mine to improvised morgues throughout the little mining village for identification.

James Fleming, one of the relief workers, was overcome by gas about a mile back in the mine and was removed to the surface for treatment.

Police guarded the highway into the mining village. Only autos bearing persons with credentials were allowed in the town.

Several hundred yards from the mine the company had thrown up a fence of wire. Frantic women and children were prevented from jamming about the mine mouth.

to found in Southern California. The allied organizations for the benefit of the younger members of the Y. M. C. A. are active in every section of the county.

That very important in cultural work is the provision for work among the girls. Working clubs of Y. W. C. A. and Girl Reserves and Scouts are planted in all sections. These are younger in years of existence than the boys' clubs but they are established on a sound basis, and are doing a splendid and fundamental work among our young women.

The Boy Scout work is among the best. Well organized troops headed by leaders of unquestioned ability and integrity are actively working 200 nature hours of an average of 100 nature hours, according to the standards at the courthouse, has been before the juvenile court

a motor car?

To speed the first test you apply to a motor car... Then drive The Victory Six, for no car in its class is so fast.

Is acceleration a major consideration?... 5 to 25 miles in 7 1/4 seconds—10 to 45 miles in 13 1/4 seconds—tell the unparalleled story of Victory pick-up.

Are you interested in economy?... 21 miles per gallon at 25 miles per hour is average gas consumption for this famous Six.

of hill climber?... Ask Montana, Colorado, Pennsylvania! More power per pound is the answer. A body with only 8 major parts—lighter by 175 pounds—yet sturdier!

of smooth traveler?... Dash over rail-road tracks—over old cobble pavements—and you'll marvel! For The Victory Six is different. No body tilt—no body overhang—chassis the full width of the body—a lower center of gravity. Sideways, bumping, rear wheel chatter magically absent.

Spacious?... Head room equal to any—superior to most—in its class. Widest seats—most leg room. Big!

And a beauty! Refined and trim in line, richly upholstered, beautifully lacquered in smart hues—tomorrow's style with Dodge dependability.

A car that you should try out—now—yourself at the wheel.

The cultural and educational advantages of this county were brought out in an address this noon by S. C. Martranft, prominent educator and former state assemblyman, before the Business and Professional Women's club. Below are pictured at the top the Santa Ana high school, second from the top Tustin Union high school, in the oval Huntington Beach's new high school and at the bottom the Fullerton Union High school and Junior college.

in this county. No further argument is needed to prove that the Boy Scout work is worthwhile.

"When you have named all the man-made institutions and have paid tribute to the generosity of yourselves in providing and equipping them, you have not yet caught the reflection of the most powerful factors in cultural development—the great outdoors.

Climate is Constant Invitation

"With a climate that is a constant invitation to 'come out' and with every where to go that any section of the world can offer, with all to see that Nature's museum has gathered, who that has life and ambition, good eyes and an open mind, is not thrilled with a day in the great out-doors of Orange county.

"Encircled completely by nature's two great fortifications, the ocean and the mountains, she is secure in her boundless wealth of beauty and power. To the north and east, always in sight, are mountain systems that rival the Alps in scenic beauty and havens of rest and recreation, and poured round her west and south in a great semi-circle is the boundless Pacific with its soul-lifting surge, its tumultuous breaking on her rock-bound shores or its gentle undulation over miles of sandy beach, the playground of every citizen.

"In an hour from your home anywhere in the county you may refresh the lagging spirit in either of these two inspiring, God-given teachers of life's greatest lessons.

"I presume I am trespassing on someone's subject in bringing these natural advantages to our county into this discussion but we cannot think in terms of culture without reflecting on the power of the majestic in nature to lift the soul into an atmosphere, so pure, so simple, so genuine, so eternal, as the great out-doors.

"I never go to the ocean side or to the mountain heights that I do not sit down somewhere and recite all of Van Dyke's 'Ode to the God of the Open Air.' All who visit the ocean or mountains must come away with added good, with new growth in the cultural life.

Physical Culture Emphasized
"For physical culture the county is without limit. Every school specializes in it and offers all phases of the work for the development of the body of the youth and provides expert medical service to guard against the inroads of error or disease.

"Every center is organized into indoor baseball leagues, with rival contests which afford the most exhilarating and vitalizing hour an evening can contribute.

"A half-dozen golf links within the borders of the county contribute to the opportunities in a large measure for the business and professional men to gain the recreation so much needed in their severe stress of duty and labor.

"For all who may not have access to these institutions nor may be inclined to avail themselves of them the miles of 'open road' paved like city streets stretch in all directions and lead everywhere. "When these physical cultures are indulged, every faculty of the human is influenced—memory, observation, reason, judgment, love, refinement, toleration, religion, all, all that goes to make a man, has been changed. It may be imperceptible for the moment, but it is as certain as sunshine.

Must Patronize Advantage
"The critic is saying: 'Why do we not reach perfection with all these accumulations for building the character into the ideal? Beho answers: 'Why? How do you meet them? How do you regard and value all these cultural advantages in your midst? Do you know your schools and teachers as you know your club members? Do you visit your playgrounds and classrooms as you do your card games? Do you patronize the football, baseball games as you do the pink teas and lunch clubs?

"Do you attend the house of worship and contribute to this greatest means of highest culture ever presented to man as you do the theater and movie?

"Are you using and supporting for the upbuilding of this community all of these institutions?

"The base of all culture as of character is at last the moral sentiment.

"A man's nature runs either to herbs or to weeds; Therefore let him seasonably water the one and destroy the other."

"Culture is like wealth, it gives a stability, it makes us confident, it enables us to bring out ourselves."

"A cultured people, a refined community, a reliant government, will grow out of a soil impregnated with possibilities when we plant and water with willingness and hope."

RESIDENT OF COUNTY SIXTY YEARS PASSES

Elmer Thomas Martin, pioneer resident of Orange county, died yesterday at his home in Villa Park, following a heart attack. He was 84 years of age.

Funeral services will be held at the Gilegley funeral home, Orange, tomorrow, at 3 p. m.

He is survived by his brother, John L. Martin, a sister, Mrs. Walter S. (Mattie) Morrow, Orange, and two nephews, Earl and Allen Morrow, Orange. He also was a brother-in-law of Martin V. Allen.

Mr. Martin came to this section with his parents in 1880, the family first locating in what is now the Taibred district. Later the family moved to Trabuco canyon, where Mr. Martin lived for 37 years. Seventeen years ago he and his brother, John L., purchased an orange grove in the Villa park district, where they have since resided.

Mr. Martin worked a tractor on the grove a portion of Saturday forenoon and made a business trip into Orange. Suddenly, at noon, he was seized with an attack of heart failure and died yesterday morning. According to relatives he never had complained of heart trouble, and had always enjoyed good health.

"HELLO MRS. ROBINSON"

"Hello, Mrs. Robinson," is what Princess Jacqueline, the bride from England pictured above, might be saying. But it happened that Princess Jacqueline, the property and companion of Mrs. Mabel Robinson of Bangor, Me., is singing now. This picture of Mrs. Robinson and her remarkable talking dog was taken during the recent Chicago Kennel Club show. Jacqueline says very plainly "I will," "I won't," "clever" and "out."

MRS. COOKSON TO COME INTO LOCAL COURT

Mrs. Virginia Lee Cookson, farmette of the Forest of Arden, who furnished Orange county with a kidnapping thrill several years ago, is destined to be in the public eye again, it was revealed today.

Following a decision of the court of appeals, setting aside a court victory won in 1924 by Mrs. Cookson and her husband, Walter Cookson, against a former employer, Wallace G. Miller, the superior court here has taken up the matter again and placed it on the calendar for October 1. The case will be called in Superior Judge Homer G. Ames' court.

Miller sued the Cooksons in 1924 for the loss of an eye, which he claimed resulted from carrying out orders of Mrs. Cookson regarding the installation of a radio in 1922. Seeking a piece of brass with which to make a fuse, Wallace came across a nitro-glycerine fuse, which he attempted to reduce to the proper size on an emery wheel, he declared. The resulting detonation permanently took away his ability to see with his left eye, he said.

The case ended here in non-suit and never went before the jury. The late Judge E. B. West granted the motion made by W. F. Menton, who represented the Cooksons. Charles D. Swanner and Roland Thompson, representing Miller, moved to set the case for trial last Friday.

Mrs. Cookson first drew attention to herself in 1923 when it was reported that she had armed herself with a shotgun and stood watch over a water flume on her ranch to block an asserted attempt to invade her arid domain.

Later she suddenly disappeared while driving home at night from the home of friends in Orange. She was located at Calexico, where she told a sensational story of being abducted and carried to a Mexican abode and carried to a Mexican abode to sell her into slavery. A Chinese boy whom she befriended aided her to escape, she said.

Cats Sought To Rout Field Mice At Yorba Linda

YORBA LINDA, May 21.—This city is one place where cats are in demand. Residents of this community are not bothered by the howls of felines on their back fences. Rather they are seeking cats.

The sudden demand for cats has been caused by the invasion of the town by an army of field mice. The mice are nibbling garden products, climbing avocado trees and eating the fruit and in other ways making life miserable for local farmers.

C. H. Eichler, local rancher, reports having killed more than two dozen mice in a cement irrigation ditch recently. The rodents are about twice as large as the ordinary house mouse.

Roman roads built before the birth of Christ are now lighted by electricity.

DR. WARREN IS TALKER BEFORE BIBLE CLASS

More than 150 members of the Men's Community Bible class heard an address yesterday by Dr. Frank Warren, financial secretary of the Southern Church Brotherhood of Los Angeles, at its regular meeting at the West Coast-Walker theater.

The subject, "Yourself," was in part as follows:

"Law is man's and God's way of working. To violate a law is to pay a penalty. Maybe not immediately, but eventually. If you intend to grow you must work according to certain laws. You must grow. Either you are a grower or you are a goner. There is no such place as standstill, no such place as stop. The man who stops, dies. To grow you must be careful of what you eat. To grow spiritually you must be more careful of what you feed your mind. The careful of what you take in intellectually.

"People's minds are being saturated and poisoned with corruption and filth that is poured into our heads through the newspapers and other channels today. When you stop to think of the impurity that is put into the minds and then think of the small fragments of religious training, it is marvelous that the men and women, boys and girls are as good as they are. Fourteen billion dollars is the price of crime in the United States every year. We have statistics to prove it.

The World war indebtedness to the United States over the three years was less than 12 billion dollars. We spend more than that every year for crime, but the American people are not aware of that! But the World war did not bring on this age of crime! There are thousands and thousands, yes millions of boys who were in the United States army who would gladly defend the United States against liquor and crime just the same as they defended the United States against anarchy and war! Lack of religious training is responsible for crime! The average American boy and girl is receiving less than six hours a year of religious training. The Christian man must clean up! It is up to you! Show that you are a Christian by what you do. The world doesn't care what you believe, the world wants men who will do things. How greatly in need is the state of California, and the United States for Christian men to do things and get into action!"

As special musical numbers, Dayton Alexander and Will Sundstrom gave three banjo duets, "Beside a Garden Wall," "Ramona" and "Just Once Again."

YORBA LINDA CITRUS PLANT SENDS SHIPMENT OF CHOICE FRUIT TO STOCKHOLM, SWEDEN

YORBA LINDA, May 21.—A consignment of 250 boxes of the finest Valencia oranges in Orange county will leave here this week for Sweden, it was reported today by officials of the Foothill Groves packing plant. The shipment will go to Stockholm on the steamer Alex Johnson. The fruit is the first picked by the Foothill plant and the picking is being made to fill the special order.

The fruit is being selected with care and is being picked from the A. Wardman, E. T. Yorba and J. W. Brown groves. These groves are among the finest in the district. The regular picking season of the Foothill plant will not start until later.

The Yorba Linda Citrus association will start picking operations about June 1, it is reported. The exchange house will employ its own picking crews but the fruit will be packed by the Bets Packing company.

The association now has in storage about 50 cars of lemons. Last year at this time the house was holding more than 100 carloads of lemons. Light shipments have marked the season this season.

COMMISSION NAMED

MOSCOW, May 21.—A special commission has been appointed here to draft plans with a view to increasing exports and stimulating foreign trade generally. The chairman is Sokolnikoff, whom the soviet government relieved of his post as commissar of finance in 1934, because he advocated a relaxation of the monopoly of foreign trade. It is believed in Moscow that the commission will recommend some relaxation of the present monopoly of exports.

P.-T. A. COUNCIL TO HEAR FACTS ABOUT SCHOOLS

First hand information regarding housing conditions in the Santa Ana city school system, and the imperative need for relief in form of a building program, will be told the membership of the Santa Ana City Council of Parent-Teacher associations at a meeting to be held this evening at 7:30 o'clock in the auditorium of the Polytechnic high school.

According to Mrs. Pay R. Spangler, president of the P.-T. A. council, the meeting will be addressed by Principal D. E. Hammond of the junior college and the high school, Principal H. G. Nelson of Julia C. Lathrop junior high school, and Principal Will E. Kellogg of the Frances E. Willard junior high school. Other principals, representing the various grammar schools, will be on hand to answer questions regarding the needs of their respective institutions.

Mrs. Spangler called attention to the fact that the presence of the various school executives has been requested by the Parent-Teacher organization as it is a desire to obtain first hand information as to the actual needs of the various schools. Moreover, it is believed that no one can tell the story of conditions better than the principals whose information is based on everyday experience in dealing with the situation.

Dr. Osman R. Hull and Dr. Willard S. Ford of the School of Education, University of Southern California, will give a brief talk on the housing situation, setting forth basic requirements and proposed relief. City superintendent J. A. Cranston will give a general outline of the building program, giving his reasons for the same. A portion of the program will be given over to an open forum discussion at which questions from the floor will be answered. Fire hazard, endangering the lives of school children; unsanitary conditions and their effect upon pupils; health; traffic dangers incidental to frequent crossing of main thoroughfares; crowded class rooms; lack of facilities to carry on the work of modern curricula; unsatisfactory as well as costly arrangements for transportation of school children, are among matters to be touched upon tonight by the different speakers.

Mrs. Spangler, in announcing the program expressed the hope that not only every Parent-Teacher in the city council district, but every citizen interested in child welfare, will make a special effort to be present at tonight's meeting.

Africa Farmers Battle Jackals

JOHANNESBURG, May 21.—In the Maquassi mountains, near Walmansstad, 4500 armed and mounted farmers have started an offensive against 300 jackals, which from time to time have come down from the hills to destroy sheep.

The farmers came from a radius of 30 miles, armed with shot guns, dynamite and paraffine. There was one posse of twenty men with long gray beards who had fought in the last Boer war, and one veteran brought with him a dog that he said was 23 years old. The operations were photographed from an airplane piloted by Lieutenant Bentley of Cairo-to-the-Cape fame. Many jackals have been killed.

S. A. TEACHERS DELEGATES TO L. A. MEETING

Pratt L. L. Beaman, president of the City Teachers' League, and head of the social sciences department of the high school, Miss Verna E. Wells, principal of Roosevelt school, and Miss Gladys P. Campbell, of Roosevelt school, were among the delegates to the meeting of the Council of the California Teachers' association, southern section, held in Los Angeles Saturday.

According to Miss Campbell, it was revealed at the meeting that the teaching profession has assumed a share of the responsibility in promoting and furthering harmonious relations between Mexico and the United States. It was pointed out that educators have given cordial reception to a delegation of Mexican educators now visiting California in search of usable ideas which may be infused into the present Mexican school plan.

Dr. Shields, of the modern language division of the Los Angeles schools, has been sponsoring such hospitality and with this group of school people, visited the Saturday meeting.

Mrs. Campbell said they had come to listen, but were prevailed upon to talk. Those who spoke first were Benita Esperanza Reyes, normal teacher and teacher of chemistry and biology in secondary schools, Mexico City, Senor Alberto Guavara, normal teacher and superintendent of primary education, Mexico City, and Senor Francisco Manriquez, normal teacher and head of federal education in state of Sinaloa.

Sen. City of Culiacan. The two gentlemen spoke through the aid of an interpreter. He did not have to depend upon the English language to improve the audience with his theory, order and vision. The latter speaker, Senor Carlos H. de Alvarado, of the state of Sinaloa, of the technical, commercial and industrial school for girls in Toluca, Mexico, spoke in perfect English and her interpretations were brightened by a keen sense of humor. Prof. Henry C. Allen, an American, formerly of Pasadena, now superintendent of the American school foundation in Mexico City, gave the concluding talk. The gist of these messages brought forth the great need of Mexico, educationally and otherwise, and the expressions of gratitude for the cordiality and help given during their visit were dominant.

Another matter of importance which came before the council was the incorporation of the very new bureau of welfare. This bureau is composed of nine of the teaching profession of Southern California. Miss Campbell is one of the members. This welfare organization is for the purpose of caring for teachers who are unable to teach and in need of such help, young or old, assisting teachers by money loans, establishing of a home for retired teachers who wish quiet, homelike surroundings, etc. The establishment of this bureau marks a great step professionally for all teachers.

Delegates to the National Educational association, which will be held in Minneapolis, Minn., this summer, were selected and the hearing of committee reports constituted the remaining important business of the session.

Madagascar Coal Deposits Found

PARIS, May 21.—The ministry for the colonies announced that extensive and important deposits of coal have been discovered in the island of Madagascar. The carboniferous belt lies between the Cape of Sainte Marie and Saint Andre, and measures about 500 miles by 100 miles. It is estimated that, limiting the diggings to a depth of about 1000 feet, 1,000,000,000 tons of coal will be available.

ORANGE LEGION TO OPEN NEW HOME TUESDAY

ORANGE, May 21.—Phil Dodson, state commander of the American Legion, will be present at the dedication of the American Legion hall here on Tuesday, June 2nd, it was announced today, by H. O. Wallace, commander of the local post. Dodson will deliver the principal address.

The program for the dedication is in charge of a committee with G. E. Morrow, secretary of the Y. M. C. A., as chairman. The rest of the committee is composed of the present Legion commanders, H. O. Wallace, Claude Potter, P. C. Slater and Louis Prosser, all past commanders of the Orange post.

The dedication ceremonies as planned are to be most impressive. A soldier and a sailor in uniform will stand guard at the entrance of the clubhouse with fixed bayonets, as the colors are escorted by the Santa Ana bugle and drum corp. Two soldiers and two sailors in full regalia will make up the color guards.

The ceremonies are scheduled to begin at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon. It is expected that Legion posts from the various towns of the county will be represented.

The ceremonies will include among other impressive rites the unveiling of the cornerstone and the raising of the colors.

In the evening the Legion members will open the clubhouse to the public and entertainment will be offered by a dance, a card party and other features.

The clubhouse, completed this spring, is a memorial to the soldiers of the world war who died in the cause. It is considered one of the finest buildings of the kind in the state.

Immense Shoals Of Herring Now In Jutland Fiord

COPENHAGEN, May 21.—Immense shoals of herring have swarmed into Aabenraa Fiord, in Southern Jutland, where fishermen are making catches larger than any known in living memory.

Several million pounds of fish have already been taken, and there is no appreciable diminution in the number of the fish. They are so densely packed in the water that fishermen declare that an oar struck into the shoal will stand up.

The average daily catch is about 500,000 pounds. Even experienced fishermen are unable to suggest where this wealth of herrings comes from.

TRUCKING COMPANY SEEKS INJUNCTION

That the Fullerton Truck and Storage company has been operating under a fictitious name since January 15 without recording or registering it, had been alleged today in a complaint for an injunction filed in Superior court by Thomas W. Yeates, Fullerton.

Yeates claimed that the defendant's name is easily confused with that of his own company, the Fullerton Transfer and Storage company, which was organized in 1928. The firm complained of began an intensive advertising campaign in January, imitating the service of the plaintiff concern, it was declared.

R. L. Hyde, joined as a defendant through his alleged connection with the Fullerton Truck and Storage company, formerly was an employee of the plaintiff, it was asserted.

The American Railway association estimates that 1331 pounds of fuel are required to haul 1000 tons of freight one mile.

SANTA ANA HAS BIG EXHIBIT AT VALENCIA SHOW

ANAHEIM, May 21.—Occupying 200 square feet of ground space and costing nearly $1000, the Santa Ana exhibit at the eighth annual California Valencia Orange show is among the most beautiful and effective of the 12 feature exhibits. The exhibit is typical of the rich fruit growing territory of which the county seat of Orange county is the center.

Pasadena's exhibit is one of the most novel and attractive of the 12 exhibits in the feature section. The exhibit is a replica of Aladdin's cave, with a huge Aladdin lamp in its cavernous depths. The exhibit occupies 400 square feet of ground space and cost approximately $1000 to erect.

The most elaborate and expensive exhibit at this year's Valencia show is that of the 19 packing plants in Orange county belonging to the California Fruit Growers' Exchange. This exhibit represents a Chinese temple, artistically decorated with oranges. Its cost is given as $5000.

San Diego's exhibit is in the form of a five-pointed star with a Chinese temple in the center containing a revolving platform and windows displaying in sequence pictures telling in brief the story of Aladdin. Five fountains are placed between the star points. The exhibit cost approximately $2000.

One of the most striking of the 12 feature exhibits is that of the Anaheim high school, consisting of a Chinese temple fantastically decorated and elaborately trimmed with oranges. The Anaheim Rotary, Kiwanis, Lions and Elks clubs co-operated with the high school in defraying the cost of this exhibit, about $1000.

Pomona's exhibit, costing $1200, shows Princess Buddha at Buddha's door in the room reserved for her in the palace built up Aladdin, while the Fullerton exhibit shows Aladdin's mother entering the palace of the emperor with a tray of jewels to present to him in return for his consent to the marriage of the princess and Aladdin. This exhibit covers 400 square feet and cost $1000.

The Huntington Beach exhibit also is a Chinese castle effect with Aladdin rubbing his lamp and producing a wealth of oil and oranges. Sacramento's exhibit features a large map showing the principal California fruit districts and principal markets over the country.

San Bernardino's entry, a mechanical exhibit, shows Aladdin with a basket of jewels in the shape of golden Valencia. The Long Beach exhibit features the Pacific Southwest Exposition to be held there this summer.

Occupying a space 20 by 40 feet and costing close to $3000, the Los Angeles exhibit is one of the most elaborate shown. This exhibit shows a desert scene with Arabs and camels laden with boxes of oranges and a sheik's tent wherein is confined the stolen princess, as described by Aladdin. Cash prizes totaling $1175 and two valuable silver trophies will be awarded in the feature exhibit division.

Saints Begin Class Football Series Tomorrow

SOPHOMORES TO MEET SENIORS IN FIRST TILT

Winning Eleven Will Play Juniors Next Friday in Championship Contest

Spring football will reach a climax at Santa Ana high school this week when Coach "Tex" Oliver and his assistants, Bill Foots and Clyde Cook, direct their neophytes through their annual interclass championship series.

Teams representing the sophomores and senior classes will clash at Poly field tomorrow afternoon and the winner will go against the junior eleven Friday for the Poly crown. The juniors won the title in 1927.

Coach Oliver has been devoting the major part of his attention of late to the sophomores while Foots has had charge of the juniors and Cook the seniors.

In the interclass series, the sophomores will make use for the most part of Knute Rockne's Notre Dame system of play, the juniors of Howard Jones' U. S. C. system and the seniors of "Pop" Warner's Stanford system.

Alvin Rebolin has been elected captain of the sophomore squad. Clarence Spencer of the juniors and "Rag" Rust of the seniors. Interiors are barred in the competition.

Practice will be continued after the completion of the interclass rivalry. In following week, the members of the Poly eleven of 1927 will meet the prospective members of the 1928 team in a contest that will conclude spring practice.

HE'S BEEN ILL

Rene Lacoste, world's tennis champion and the ace of the French Davis cup holders, was ill through most of the winter months and made his first championship appearance since last fall at the recent British hard court championship tournament where he won the title. In his latest picture, above, he shows plainly the effect of his illness.

M'LARNIN AND MANDELL BOUT 'ON' TONIGHT

NEW YORK, May 21.—After four days postponement, the lightweight championship fight between Sammy Mandell, of Rockford, Ill., and Jimmy McLarnin, of Vancouver, takes place tonight at the Polo Grounds.

Both boxers succeeded in making the required 135-pounds at 2 p. m. in the offices of the New York state athletic commission. Each was a few ounces overweight but they reduced to the lightweight limit by some judicious exercise in an adjoining room.

Originally scheduled for last Thursday night, rain and threatening weather forced the fighters to remain idle after weighing in.

Mandell remained a 7 to 5 favorite in the betting today. Many fans believed the champion better able to defend his crown tonight than last Thursday. He spent the week-end at his Orangeburg, N. Y., training camp and Eddie Kane, his manager, reported him in great shape.

Next Sunday night, the Santa Ana Furniture company and the Alex. H. Smith company, champions of Division No. 1 of the Santa Ana Senior League, will meet in a double bill at Ocean Park, the local shavers did not land among the leaders Saturday night.

The Orange County Pin tournament opened tonight and continues until June 11. Bowlers may make as many as six starts in this affair and there will be no entry fee. Fifteen dollars donated by local merchants, will be offered.

Although the Hancock Gasoline sold best by more than 100 pins the best score rolled by any other Orange county team in the tournament of the Pacific Coast Bowling Congress at Ocean Park, the local shavers did not land among the leaders Saturday night.

The Hancock Gasoline team accumulated 2634 pins. The Hancock had good first and third games but were weak in their second and fourth. None of the Santa Ana team anything outstanding in their singles and doubles.

WEEK OF SPORT CROWDED WITH MAJOR EVENTS

By FRANK GETTY (United Press Sports Editor)

NEW YORK, May 21.—One of the most crowded weeks in the history of sport was ushered in today, with many international championships at stake.

Three world's boxing titles will be fought for within the next few days, lightweight, bantamweight, and junior lightweight. The British Amateur golf championship and the French tennis championships are being contested at Prestwich, Scotland, and Africa, respectively.

The United States Olympic football team started training today for its first round match against the Argentinians at Amsterdam, while Davis cup play continued in several European capitals.

College Tracksters Clash On Friday and Saturday, representatives of 30 colleges will compete at Cambridge, Mass., in the annual Intercollegiate A. A. A. track and field championships.

And last the C. C. Pyle transcontinental foot race comes to an end in Madison Square Garden on Saturday night.

The boxing situation—three world's championship fights within four days—is unprecedented and still in the hands of the weather man. If Tex Rickard sells those other six tickets and the rain holds off, Sammy Mandell and Jimmy McLarnin will battle for the lightweight crown tonight at the Polo Grounds.

On Wednesday, Issey Schwartz, flyweight champion of the world, goes out of his class in an attempt to win the bantamweight title by defeating "Bushy" Graham from Utica.

Morgan Defends Title On Thursday night in Madison Square Garden, Tod Morgan defends the junior lightweight crown against Eddie (Cannonball) Martin, former bantam champion.

America's representatives in the British Amateur golf championship will start this morning at Prestwich, where Johnny McHugh, of San Francisco, and Douglas Grant, whose home is in London. Neither has much chance to win.

In the French tennis championships the chances of the United States are brighter. Helen Willis is playing great tennis in preparation for a winning fight in the women's singles. Francis T. Hunter, of New Rochelle, is one of the Americans in the men's singles.

Sunday, Hunter and Miss Willis defeated Crawford and Miss Ackhurst, of Great Britain, 6-3, 6-2, which started this morning at Westwick, where Johnny McHugh, of San Francisco, and Douglas Grant, whose home is in London. Neither has much chance to win.

PAULINO VISITS HIS FOLKS

Of course you knew Paulino Uscudun would visit the old folks at home when he returned to Europe several weeks ago, and he did. He is shown here with his mother at Regil, Spain, and you know he really enjoys being there with the biggest pal of all. For, as he says, there's no friend like her. He expects to return to this country soon for some heavyweight bouts.

"JUMPING FROG"—HE SHOWS 'EM

Stockton Entry Wins Great 'Amphibian Rodeo'

REVIVAL ATTENDED BY 15,000

ANGELES CAMP, Calif., May 21.—A new world record stands shattered here today, and a mean looking bullroger wearing a blue ribbon sits basking down in Stockton satiating himself with flies and the knowledge he showed 'em, and how.

With one frantic leap, like a new Ford leaving a lineup of last year's limousines tied to the post when the traffic arm says "Go," "Jumping Frog" of San Joaquin made a mark of three feet and six inches to first place in the "Amphibian Rodeo" here yesterday.

"Bud-Weiser" who has also made his name in hops, skidded on the take off and came down on his vandrads two inches short of "Leaping Frog's" record. He was slightly wrecked, but won second place.

Both athletes are from the Fisher stable of Stockton. They came into the money before a crowd of 15,000, gathered to witness the revival of the Calaveras classic, made famous by Mark Twain.

The affair was under the constant scrutiny of judges and inspectors, to prevent too close a parallel to the Mark Twain incident, wherein

JULIA LATHROP BOYS FIRST IN OLYMPIC TESTS

Two boys of the Julia C. Lathrop Junior high school of Santa Ana, won firsts in the senior and junior classes of the Junior Olympic tryouts held at Poly field here Saturday. Representatives of 15 schools in Orange county participated in the preliminaries to select 10 athletes to go to the Southern California finals.

James Daneri, the all-around athletic ace, of the local junior high school, won over Norman Paul, the young Santa Ana high school entry, for the senior class honors. Daneri's point total was 549 while Paul's was 505.

Harold Bowe, another of Coach Ferris Scott's proteges, won the junior tests with 469 points. John Simpson, of Fremont school, Anaheim, was second with 429 points.

Up to the time the "chinning" contest was held, Paul was leading over Lathrop hero but Daneri won into first place when he made 20 pull-ups as against 15 for Paul.

The score registered by Daneri has been bettered only by three Southern California youngsters this year. Pina, a San Bernardino lad, totaled 601 in a recent tryout. Warboys, of Los Angeles, made 580, and Saloon, Azusa, scored 550. Both Daneri and Paul are expected to improve on their present marks by practicing on their own weak event, the pull-up, in which points count heavily.

Paul scored the highest marks in two of the events. He and Daneri both ran the 75-yard dash in 8.4 seconds. Paul jumped 9 feet, 1-2 inch in the standing broad jump and Daneri's distance was 8 feet 9 inches. Paul threw the baseball 312 feet to 300 for Daneri. In the basketball throw for accuracy, however, Daneri scored 10 times to 8 for Paul out of 20 chances.

The list of Orange county representatives eligible to enter the June 2 finals of the Southern California contest at Moor field, University of California at Los Angeles, includes in the senior class James Daneri, 549; Norman Paul, 505; Albert Madaff, 475; of St. Catherine's academy, Anaheim; Jack Mullen, 432; Huntington Beach; and Gilbert Doyle, 431, of Santa Ana high school.

The junior representatives are Harold Bowe, 469, John Simpson, 429, and Paul Linehan, 387, Arnold Arneson, 38, and Gail Gardner, 369, all of St. Catherine's academy, Anaheim.

Two favorites in yesterday's meet, "One Long Hop," Chinese entry of Modesto, and "Leaping Lena" of Lodi, failed to get into the money. Gold was again being brought down out of the hills from Angels Camp today—this time representing the heavy betting pay off on the rodeo.

GORCHAKOFF TAKES NET CHAMPIONSHIP

LOS ANGELES, May 21.—Ben Gorchakoff, Occidental college tennis star, won the Southern California singles championship yesterday when he defeated Clifton B. Herd, 6-2, 6-3.

Ellsworth Vines and James Ruschler won the men's doubles by beating Ed Woodall and Jack De Lara, 6-3, 6-7, 6-1.

May Sutton Bundy and Phil Near won in straight sets from Mrs. Gross and Gorchakoff in the mixed doubles, 6-3, 6-4. Mrs. Bundy had already won the women's singles Saturday by beating "Midge" Gladman.

Miss Gladman and Mrs. Henry took the women's doubles from Mrs. Bundy and Miss Marlowe, 6-6, 6-4.

The reporters went to their offices and wrote the interviews and the editor who read the story of what really was said thought the writer was taking great liberties with accuracy in order to be funny.

TOO HOT TO HANDLE Jack Sharkey, who does not always speak Lithuanian in his conversation, has complained that the boxing writers took too many liberties in quoting him as a braggart. It will be admitted by the majority of the writers that they did not always quote him with strict accuracy, but if they did use his exact language they would have been fired and he would have been pinched.

DAILY FAIRY STORY: Said Walter Hagen to Bobby Jones, "I wouldn't have taken that $50,000 house either."

Women Golfers In Qualifying Round LOS ANGELES, May 21.—The qualifying round in the Southern California women's golf championship was scheduled today at Balboa Country club. Mrs. Green Lifer, California Country club, is the defending champion.

DOUBLE EVENT FEATURES NEW CARD AT DELHI

Boyd ("Tex") Ellis, the Delhi boxing impresario, is going to give the "associate membership" of his amateur athletic club a treat Wednesday night.

Ellis has lined up a double main event and will feature in his two top spots four of the best available amateurs in Southern California, he avers. Incidentally, the main affairs will both be mixed battles between colored and white competitors.

In the final, George Ortega, an overgrown middleweight from the Columbia Athletic club, whose one appearance at Delhi was when he decisively defeated Art Venable several weeks ago, will oppose Young Ford, a Negro from Arizona.

Benny Mack, not the white one known to Delhi fandom, (he has turned professional), will face "Punch" Em Paul" Gomes, of Anaheim, in the other feature scramble. Gomes has won four starts at Delhi all by knockouts and has won for himself a flock of admirers by his fearless and consistent boxing.

Four preliminaries will lead up to the "treat." Young Zenaydo Chavez, the Little Santa Ana genius who is being brought along carefully by Kid Mexico, the former Huntington Beach boxer, battles Frank Pope, of San Juan Capistrano, in the feature event. Johnny Hernandez, the Anaheim idol who has not lost a bout at the "treat," gets Frank Loto in another interesting go. Emil Fara, of Richfield, boxes George Moore and Young Ray, a Santa Ana lad, makes his pugilistic debut against Dominick DuPre in the eye-opener.

LOS ANGELES, May 21.—EM Dudley, Hollywood, won the Southern California Professional Golfers' association title yesterday when he defeated Chet Beer, Bakersfield, 3 and 1 in the 36-hole final match. Dudley's consistently long drives aided him in the victory. He played good golf all week. He was 3-up at the turn yesterday.

Dudley Is Winner Of Pro Golf Title

LOS ANGELES, May 21.—The qualifying round in the Southern California women's golf championship was scheduled today at Balboa Country club. Mrs. Green Lifer, California Country club, is the defending champion.

PLAYOFFS WILL BE LIMITED TO NEW DIVISIONS

Fullerton High School Is Allowed Permission to Join Coast Prep Loop

The strongly knitted athletic associations of Southern California's high schools will not be broken up this year at least. Santa Ana high school still remains a member of the Coast Preparatory league and Tustin, Garden Grove, Huntington Beach and other nearby cities are still allied with the Orange league.

This was learned here today following a meeting in Los Angeles Saturday night of the California Interscholastic federation, Southern section, at which J. W. Means, principal of Tustin high school, represented Orange county.

Until recently it was limited quite broadly that the majority of the C. I. F. delegates were in favor of a plan advanced by the energetic federation president, Harry J. Moore, which would have broken up the existing organizations, such as the Coast league and the Orange league, and matched the schools athletically on a geographical and school attendance basis.

Moore Plan Spurned The C. I. F. spurned this plan when it was presented by Moore Saturday, however, although it later took important steps in the direction of curtailing the present lengthy seasons of sport.

There will be no more playoffs for Southern California or California state championships, it was decided, and the various seasons will terminate with the completion of inter-divisional schedules. With this in mind, the C. I. F. grouped the schools as follows:

(1) Private schools and schools north of Los Angeles; (2) Los Angeles city institutions; (3) Major Bay league and the Coast Preparatory league; Minor-Orange league; Imperial Valley league and San Diego county league; (4) Citrus Belt league and all other organizations not otherwise classified.

Playoffs Limited Next year, for instance, the winner of the Coast Preparatory league will meet the champion of the Bay league after which the season for both teams will close. Winners of the Orange, Imperial and San Diego leagues will play for the title in the minor division of No. 2.

Fullerton, which for some time has been dissatisfied with conditions in the Orange league, was given permission to enter the Coast Preparatory league.

The C. I. F. went on record as opposing the employment of uncertified coaches and also of paying mentors from monies outside of regular school funds.

WALLACE WINS COUNTRY CLUB SWEEPSTAKES

Low M. Wallace, president of the First National bank of Newport Beach, defeated many of the Santa Ana Country club's leading golfers Saturday when he won first place at medal play in the Class A ball sweepstakes with a net count of 72, one stroke better than R. E. Emison.

Ed Holmes, the club's champion and F. E. Farnsworth had the best gross scores with 89 but Wallace was close behind with 92, and his 19 handicap left him 72. Emison registered 87-14-72. Holmes with his 89-6-74 tied for third with Farnsworth, who had an identical card, and J. L. Ainsworth, who brought home an 88-14-74.

"His Hissner" Mayor Frank L. Furinton was the champion of the afternoon among the Class B boys. Furinton shot an 86-16-70, which put him ahead of Vic Baird by one stroke. Baird's card read 85-24-71. E. B. Collier was third with 89-18-73, and H. V. Anderson fourth with 90-23-74.

Class A match play against par was won by Dr. M. A. Patton and B. V. Curry, both three down. R. E. Graves was third. A. W. Griffith was the Class B winner. He was only one down. H. L. Miller, three down, was second and E. C. D. Pettitt and Carl Thrasher, four down, tied for third.

Medal play Sunday went to E. T. Mateo on the strength of his 85-10-72. E. J. MacMillan was second with 89-16-73 and E. B. Collier third with 92-18-74.

THINKS U. S. IS TOO RETICENT ON ACTIVITIES

By MAURITZ A. MALLGREN (United Press Staff Correspondent) WASHINGTON, May 21.—Americans in general and students of international affairs in particular are being kept in comparative ignorance of the activities of United States in the field of foreign relations, according to Manley O. Hudson, professor of international law at Harvard Law school.

Addressing a conference of international law teachers here, Hudson said the department of state was doing little or nothing to build up an informed public opinion in this country.

"A government which keeps its public currently informed of international affairs has little to fear from popular pressure," he asserted, "and it would seem a corollary of the new role of popular opinion that every possible means should be seized for making that opinion informed and intelligent. This is one of the first functions of a foreign office in any government which is organized on a democratic basis."

"Measured by this standard, the practice of our department of state leaves much to be desired. To speak only of the needs of teachers of international law and international relations as leaders of public opinion—rather than in their capacity as scholars—little is being done by our department of state today to enable such teachers to exercise their proper influence on public opinion."

"The publications of the department are inadequate in the extreme. Teachers have great difficulty in following the current international relations of the United States, and they are offered no governmental aid for following those of other countries; with the result that they are largely dependent on general and often garbled press accounts."

"The department of state, Hudson continued, rarely publishes informative documents in advance of international conferences and in most cases has failed to publish official reports of these conferences until after public interest in them has subsided. Treaties, likewise, are kept secret until they are proclaimed, thus seriously limiting the influence informed public opinion may exercise upon them, he declared."

On the other hand, he said, documents published by the British government "furnish students with a rich mine of information on current affairs" and "educate a wide public concerning international relations between countries other than the British empire—as service to which our government offers nothing comparable." Moreover, in the publications of the Departments of Commerce, treasury, interior, labor and agriculture "it seems to have gone very far in the education of our public concerning all governmental affairs except those relating to our official international relations."

Waverly, N. Y., May 21.—The remaining runners in C. C. Fyfe's cross country derby started a 75-mile loop toward Madison Square Garden today as the last week of the race got under way.

FRANK GETTY
SANTA ANA DAILY REGISTER

For all the world like rival bantamweights at a county fair, Tex Rickard and Umberto Pugany cry their little wares and exchange aspersions from opposite banks of the old East River.

To the humble cash customer long accustomed to Rickard's domination of the cauliflower industry, the spectacle of a rival finally giving the Great Tex a pain in the pocketbook cannot fail to be the source of mild amusement.

And the sight of the Great Tex running to the la woods, where hitherto he has been more sued against than suing, may bring a ray of sunshine to the not overly vindictive soul of the long-suffering cash customer.

The sneer of the customer after a particularly atrocious and expensive exhibition of fistcuffs so often has fallen on deaf ears where the Great Tex is concerned that the sound of Rickard squawking is bound to be melodious to the promoter's paying guests.

Two Title Bout
Rickard and Pugany are laying aside for the moment their legal squabbles over the service of Tommy Loughran, Leo Lomski and others and are stalling the respect of the two world's championship fights on Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

Pugany is presenting Kid Francis, a soaking little macaroni muncher versus Bushy Graham, the bouncing, shaggy-haired Ulihan, in a battle for the world's bantamweight championship at Ebbets Field May 23.

The following night Rickard offers Tod Morgan, junior lightweight champion, and Cammell Eddie Martin in a 15-round fight for the 130-pound title at Yankee Stadium. The New York state athletic commission agreed to recognize

BRITISH BILL HITS GAMBLING EPIDEMIC

LONDON, May 21.—Britishers' new form of gambling has attracted the attention of parliament. An epidemic of the issue of shilling (25 cents) shares known as "deferred," which for some months have been a feature of the London stock exchange, has been the subject of much controversy, and in the government's new companies bill introduced in the house of commons recently, a clause is introduced insuring the public knowing exactly what they are buying and the rights attached to them.

The practice recently has been to issue a large number of £1 ($5) shares carrying a nominal fixed dividend with a huge number of shilling deferred rights generally carrying voting rights and dividing all the remaining profits. The new fashion has been gravely abused, these deferred stocks being sky-rocketed to extraordinary heights and extravagant premiums scarcely even justified.

The stock exchange view is that the authorities should defer permission to deal in shares, especially those allotted to vendors of the companies, for a fairly lengthy period preferably until the declaration of the first dividend.

The scandal also was tackled in the government's bill, which gives protection to investors against peddlers of doubtful shares and "units." House-to-house hawking is prohibited and written offers to the public must be accompanied by full particulars. The government bill is really an attempt to protect the fool from his own folly.

Financial circles were agreeably surprised by an announcement by Courtaulds, big firm of artificial silk manufacturers, of the issue of bonus, share for share, in addition to the final dividend of 17½ per cent, making 25 per cent for the year.

DONS DEFEATED BY VIKINGS IN CLOSING GAME

The Santa Ana junior college baseball season was a thing of the past today and all of Coach Clyde Cook's pessimists were checking in their armoires.

The Dons made their final start of the year at Long Beach Saturday when they lost to the formidable Viking outfit, probable conference champion, by the lopsided count of 14 to 0.

Making five runs in the first round and a couple more in the second, Long Beach was never in danger behind the robust pitching of Talbert and Fleming who held Santa Ana to six scattered bingles.

The Vikings made their other runs off Bill Bratmler, the Don deceiver, in the seventh and eighth.

STAGE SERVICE WILL BENEFIT BEACHES, CLAIM

NEWPORT BEACH, May 21.—Orange County beaches will reap a big benefit from the "hot belt" connections and through service planned for this section of the Coast highway, if the application of the Pickwick Stages now before the State Railroad commission is granted, according to H. L. Dillingham, district passenger agent of the Pickwick system, with jurisdiction between Long Beach and San Diego, who has been here attending the hearing of the application before Examiner W. E. Williams. It is largely to provide a service for people from the Imperial Valley, Arizona, New Mexico and other warm sections to points on the South Coast that the Pickwick permit is sought, Dillingham stated. Pickwick stages run through from coast points to Arizona, New Mexico and points in the Midwest and inclusion of Newport Beach, Laguna and other South Coast cities will place them on the system and in the advertising literature of the Pickwick Stages, which is distributed throughout the country.

The Newport Harbor Chamber of Commerce, like the Long Beach and some of the other larger chambers on the coast, has endorsed the Pickwick application, which is to run through buses between Long Beach and San Diego via the coast route, which is shorter than the present route of their buses between those two points.

The application of the Pacific Coast Motor Coach company, to extend its present Newport Beach-San Juan Capistrano service to Long Beach has also been endorsed. Both applications which were before Examiner Williams at the city hall here last week, will be further heard at San Diego June 18 and Long Beach June 19.

NEW FLAG IS GIVEN LAGUNA BOY SCOUTS

LAGUNA BEACH, May 21.—Presentation of an American flag by the Woman's Relief Corps and a troop flag by the Lions club to the Boy Scouts virtually completed the equipment of Troop 10 last Friday evening.

The ceremony consisted of the presentation, drills, and the replies by Scouts Don Skidmore and James Hall. After the drills, the scouts were given all of the ice cream that they could eat.

The presentation of flags was made by Mrs. George Garbarino for the Woman's Relief Corps and by George E. Thompson for the Lions club.

The Scouts were formed about two months ago and were sponsored by the American Legion and the Lions club. The latter gave a benefit performance recently which netted about $300 for the scouts.

PLUMBING LAW IN LAGUNA IS CAUSING FUROR

LAGUNA BEACH, May 21.—Plumbers won the first case of violation of the plumbing ordinance Saturday afternoon when the case against H. A. Minor for violation of section 26 of the ordinance was before Police Judge C. C. Cravath.

Mr. Minor, who built before the city was incorporated, and who is again building in the city, pleaded ignorance of the fact that the city had adopted an ordinance requiring a permit to be taken out. The plumbers also made a point of the fact that a plumber, formerly of Laguna Beach, was assisting in the work, though he has no license in this city.

All of the plumbers of the city were interested in the case as it is the first one which has come before the court, though not the first violation.

When Minor heard of the warrant issued, he took out a permit, visited the city attorney, Vernon W. Hunt, employed a local plumber, and made every effort, the evidence showed, to comply with the ordinance.

It is said that other complaints are pending and the plumbers are determined to see that the provisions of the law are upheld.

Family Group Enjoys Visit in New Home At San Dimas

One of the first gatherings of the "Hill Club" in many weeks, took place yesterday, when a family party was staged in San Dimas, at the beautiful new Orange grove home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hill, formerly of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Hill and their young son Clifford, went to San Dimas quite recently from this city, and this was the first time that other members of the family had seen their new home. All were most enthusiastic about the newly-erected grove, and the modern home in its setting of flowers, with especially beautiful roses.

The guests motored to San Dimas, just for the afternoon, but Mr. and Mrs. Hill had planned a buffet supper for them, as the crowning point of an hour of music. Mrs. Pope C. Hill (Marguerite West) was at the piano, and everyone joined in singing all the loved old songs.

As a surprise to the hosts, the other members of the family circle presented them with many attractive gifts to be used in the home.

In the group were L. H. Hill, father of the family, and Mrs. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Hill and Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hill of this city, Mr. and Mrs. Pope C. Hill and son Winston of Pasadena, and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hill and daughter, Geraldine, Virginia and baby Eleanor Marie of Whittier.

Fifty-eight countries now maintain regular broadcast service with the United States.

Handkerchief Shower Is Compliment to Bride-Elect

A color scheme of lavender, yellow, and green was used Saturday by two young hostesses, Mrs. Francis Selway (nee Dorothy Holmes) and Miss Annie Tarver, at a bridge luncheon and handkerchief shower held at Mrs. Selway's home in Tustin, in honor of Miss Helen Bowers, pretty fiancée of Arold Norton.

Bouquets of flowers in yellow and lavender centered each luncheon table and nut cups and other table appointments were in those two colors combined with green. Later in the afternoon the shower gifts were presented Miss Bowers in a basket, garlanded with the three colors.

Bridge scores resulted in Miss Mary Jane Owens being high, Miss Rebecca Budrow, second, and Miss Constance Crookshank, low. Each received an appropriate gift.

The guest list included the Misses Helen Bowers, Adelaide Spencer, Betty Townsend of Long Beach; Betty Palmer, Juanita James, Dorothy Beale, Mary Jane Owens, Mildred Whitson, Anne Haddon, Rebecca Budrow, Josephine Crookshank, Constance Crookshank, Helen Menges, Virginia Berry, Virginia Slabaugh, Evelyn Farnsworth, Barbara Westcott, Beth Westcott, Margaret Patterson, Maria Diehl, Margaret Carothers, Marcia Keeler, Murrel Knox, Sara Hales, Emily Holmes, Helen Battey, Romana Moore and Frances Shields, Mrs. Lyman H. You and Your Friends

Tavis Westgate of the Westgate Steamship company, has returned from a week's outing with his father, Judson House of Riverside, spent at Arrowhead.

Alonso Lopes who is taking a post graduate course at the Davis Agricultural school, was a guest yesterday at the home of his uncle, G. W. Young. Mr. Lopes has been assigned to duty in Southern California and is temporarily located at the Citrus experiment station at Riverside.

Happy Afternoon Spent At Bridge Following Smart Luncheon
One of the pleasantest of the week-end parties was that planned for Saturday afternoon by Miss Catherine Walbridge, who instead of greeting her guests in her own pretty home at 2322 North Main street, staged her entertaining in the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Louise A. Backs, 225 North Claudina street, Anaheim.

It was a pleasurable experience for the young people to motor to the neighboring city for the afternoon. And upon their arrival, they found luncheon appointments most inviting, for an artistic blending of pastel colors had been used for the tables, with such details as pale pink candles and rose favors.

Bridge in the afternoon was an exciting interval, and when scores were tallied, Miss Olive Granger was found to be winner. To her was presented first prize, while a second gift was awarded Miss Mary Lark O'Brien, and consolation went to Miss Margaret Whitson.

The charming girls who made up the party were Miss Catherine Walbridge, hostess; Miss Helen Allen, Miss Miriam Adamson, Miss Mary Blakeman, Miss Margaret Ellis, Miss Helen Richards, Miss Josephine Ball, Miss Flora Granger, Miss Margaret Whitson, Miss Florence Brownridge, Miss Virginia Harris, Miss Mary Lark O'Brien, Miss Olive Granger, Miss Marcia Huber, Miss Naomi Nenne, Miss Dorothy Diehl, Miss Clara Kate Owens, Miss Lucille Harrison and Miss Frances Vieira.

Bridge Club
Mrs. Alexander Adrian and Mrs. W. K. Morrison were hostesses Friday afternoon to members of the Santa Ana O. E. S. Bridge club who gathered at Mrs. Morrison's home, 16 South Broadway, for their semi-monthly card party.

Six tables had been arranged for the occasion. When scores were added it was found that Mrs. William Dean was high, Mrs. J. C. Alexander was second and Mrs. J. T. Carter, low. Each received an appropriate gift.

Dainty refreshments were served by the hostesses at the tables, each of which was centered with a bouquet of roses or of Scotch broom.

Enjoyable Dinner and Gift Shower for Miss Sauers

Miss Laurens Sauers was complimented Friday night at a dinner party and kitchen shower given for her by Miss Helen Hull, of 1108 Kilborn drive. Miss Sauers is to marry Paul Owens of Los Angeles on June 5.

Guests were received by the hostess, assisted by her mother, Mrs. Ethel Thompson, and conducted to the dining room where the table was covered with an orchid oil cloth centered with yellow. Other table appointments carried out the same color scheme.

A dinner, reminiscent of the feasts served in Shakespearean days at old English Taverns, was enjoyed by the guests.

Following the dinner an awe-inspiring figure was placed before the honored guest. It was a bride fashioned from kitchen utensils selected by the guests.

Invited guests included the Misses Sauers, Jeanette Hamstead, Evelyn Grader, Corinne Pennington and Margaret Bowen, Mesdames Annabel Melhorn, Emma Fisher, Amo Hay, Beatrice Barnard, Mary Thompson, and Glenn Pierce, the hostess's two little sisters, June and Junior, and Bobby Melhorn.

HOUSEKEEPING

By Mrs. Mrs. MacGowan, Director of Household Science

"Stains never worry me now"

This is the simplest beginning of a letter I have just received from a woman in Cleveland. And it is true that stains need never worry any woman who knows when and how to use Chlorox. For Chlorox is "bottled magic."

Common stains
For instance: Nearly every day in every family someone spills tea, coffee, chocolate, or wine. Take the stains out with Chlorox in current solution.

And then ink spots—out they come—jiffy quick! Another nuisance that sometimes comes absolutely flat is the stain caused by medicine—syrup, iodine, marmalade, and others. Fruit stains, too, are easily disposed of. All these can be safely and quickly treated with Chlorox. You have only to follow the directions carefully.

Send for my Free Chart
If you have a difficult problem of cleaning or disinfecting you'll write to me about it. Perhaps I can help you. I shall be glad to answer your letter and send you, free of charge, my "Chlorox Cleaning Chart" to hang in your kitchen.

CLEANER VOLVO ELLIOTT

The
DAY
by ALLENE SUMNER

"Dapper Dan" is through with his job. "Dapper Dan," as we always called him because, though in his 60s, he prided himself on dressing and acting like a kid, felt the weight of his years all at once. "Dapper Dan" was utterly unprepared—never say the writing on the wall, and worry, which he has refused to entertain all the days of his life, is etching lines upon his young-old face.

Dan has had pretty easy living all his life. Good job with a good salary for the past 40 years. But he has been as good a spender as a miser. "No pockets in your shirts," was one of his favorite expressions, as he bought his diamond rings and stickpins, sent mamma and the girls on a nice trip, bought them fur coats all around or boasted about his new $800 radio.

"Dapper Dan" was the slick salesman's friend. Lots, radios, bonds, stocks, insurance, autos, grand pianos, jewelry and furs were sold to him as easily as selling other men a 10-cent cigar. Maybe it was because "Dapper Dan" liked to show a fat roll of bills. Maybe he liked to be called "good fellow." Whatever the reason, he liked to spend and spend he did. Life insurance and his own home were all that "Dapper Dan" owned when the blow came that ended his wage-earning days.

THE GIRLS OF COURSE

Some of us who knew "Dapper Dan" despite his faults asked him every once in a while what he intended to do when he could no longer work. A slight shadow would flit over the young-old man's face and he would fidget with his toes, throw out his chest and say, "Looks as if I'm good for a few more years, doesn't it?" and on the few times when one could really make "Dapper Dan" admit that maybe he wouldn't come home with that nice juicy pay envelope until he was 100, he would say: "Oh, I've got the girls."

And we shuddered, for none of us dared hope much for "Dapper Dan's" future with "the girls." We called them grasping, lazy, selfish little gold diggers in the privacy of our own thoughts. Their father had never let them work. "Guess my girls don't have to work as long as they have a Dad!" was one of his favorite speeches. And "Dapper Dan" had babbled and spoiled them, given them such clothes and luxuries that only a rich man could afford, and let his heart break when the married and left home.

ONE-SIDED SCHEME

I always shudder for parents who plan on "the children" for their old age. For while parents may plan it, the children never do. Parents who give everything to children, and thus put themselves in a dependent position in their old age necessarily have filled children with any sense of obligation or responsibility. They, the parents, always have given their children everything, asking nothing in return, and it is pretty serious gambling to expect a twig thus bent to incline any other way.

Perhaps "Dapper Dan's" theory was that a parent who did everything possible for his children, whether he could afford it or not, would be so appreciated that his own turn would come. But Dan himself has learned that it doesn't work out that way. Neither daughter "can arrange to have father with us." He's borrowed on his insurance money, and when that's gone—well there's a stricken look on "Dapper Dan's" face that seems to give the answer.

Nature is to blame. She so makes humans that they always are looking to the future—to children of their own rather than parents. Pathetic, but true!

RE-WOUND SHADES

If your window shades will not spring up quickly when pulled, take them down, hold firmly and with tweezers tighten the end spring.

THE TINYMITES

STORY BY NAL COCKMAN — PICTURES BY KORK

(Read The Story, Then Color The Picture)

"Come on," yelled Coppy, with a grin. "No loafing now. We'll all turn in and soon we'll have this lumber stacked along the water's shore. We will not stop until we're through. At first there was a lot to do, but we have finished part of it, and there is not much more."

"You're doing fine," the woodsman said. He placed a plank upon his head and shouted, "Watch me carry this. 'Til bet it will not fall!"

The Tinies thought him very strong, and watched him slowly walk along. He reached the shore and shouted, "See, it wasn't hard at all!"

The same thing Clowny thought he'd try, but couldn't lift a board that high. The woodsman laughed and watched him. Then he broke out in a smile. "I guess that you're too small," said he.

"Of course, if you were big, like me, 'tis likely you could do it. You may grow up after while."

Just then they heard a weak voice cry, "Hello, there Mister Woodsman, I have something here that you will like. It really is a treat." A pretty girl came toward the bunch. The woodsman said, "Ah, that's my lunch." And, sure enough, the little girl had brought some food to eat.

Very often a tomato or celery sauce adds much to a hot meat loaf. Many men seem to think meat loaves rather dry and tasteless but the sauce will correct this fault. A quick oven when the loaf is put in as well as a thick coating of crumbs over the surface of the loaf tends to keep the loaf moist and tasty.

Almond ice cream is deliciously simple and unusual. One cup blanched and shredded almonds, 2 cups double cream, 1 cup brown sugar, 2 cups milk, 1-8 teaspoon salt. Spread almonds on a shallow pan and brown in a slow oven. Put through fine knife of food chopper. Heat cream in double boiler over hot water. Add sugar gradually stirring constantly. Heat over hot water until sugar is melted. Add milk, nuts, and salt. Remove from heat and cool. Turn into mold, pack in six parts ice to one part almond and let stand four hours. Scrape sides of mold of freezer with a spatula several times while freezing to prevent sugar from settling to the bottom of the freezer.

Books Are Finest Of Treasures

By OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

The long hall was of white marble, tapestry-hung, and contained priceless works of art. The console of the pipe organ was vacant, yet, as we entered, "The Spring Song" was echoing through the house. It was the first time I had had an opportunity to scrape an acquaintance with an electrically-run organ.

The dressing room was French, of course, its furnishings reflecting the subtle sophistication of the decorator's art.

The high-ceiled drawing room was beyond description; so were the art gallery, the ball room, the dining room, study and library.

It seemed as though all the treasures of the earth must be there—rugs, pictures, marbles, bronzes, antiques, and draperies, the cream of the world's marts.

The library was particularly intriguing. Rare editions, first editions, original manuscripts, everything that bespoke of the book lover.

Having a moment's respite, I went in, curled up on an antique sofa, and opened a rare old volume of Milton. But it was difficult to concentrate. When one wishes to smell every single rose he must not go into a conservatory.

I began to scan the volumes on the low shelf near me. There were some copies of Goethe, an old set of Shakespeare, a large and small set of Bibles, and then an odd assortment that looked so old and well thumbed I leaned over for closer inspection. What did I see? Uncle Wiggily, several of him, indeed, two of the Oz books, Mother Goose, and some of Beatrice Potter's tiny masterpieces. You remember, of course.

As we left, some of the guests were discussing the things they had admired the most. "And what about you?" said one turning to me.

"Why," said I promptly. "I saw some old books that rather took my eye. I think I like them best of all."

YOST BROADWAY THEATRE
John Ford, Fox Films director, has added another notable photograph to his list in "Hangman's House," magnificent production which came to the Yost Broadway theatre yesterday.

Victor McLaglen plays the stellar role of Citizen Hogan while June Collyer and Larry Kent have the featured romantic leads with Hobart Bosworth and Earle Foxe in strong supporting parts. The picture may be rated as one of the most spectacular Ford has made in his seven years' association with Fox. In addition to the principals, D'Arcy Corrigan and many other outstanding players are in important roles.

Based on Donn Byrne's best-seller, "Hangman's House" is typically Irish and, in common with virtually all pictures directed by John Ford, is packed with human interest and bristles with action.

THERE is nothing quite like Bayer Aspirin for all sorts of aches and pains, but be sure it is genuine Bayer; that name must be on the package and on every tablet. Bayer is genuine, and the word genuine—in red—is on every box. You can't go wrong if you will just look at the box when you buy it.

Aspirin is the trade mark of Bayer Manufacture of Monocarbocyclohexyl Salicylic Acid in history, "Bringing Up Father," now being shown at the West Coast-Walker.

Maria Dressler and Polly Moran, the screen's famous feminine comedy team, garner most of the laughs in an excruciatingly funny series of squabbles and other adventures, Miss Moran in the role of Maggie and Miss Dressler as her sister-in-law, Mrs. Dinty Moore.

The family quarrels, alternated with Maggie's desire for social climbing, provide howls of mirth. J. Farrell MacDonald, of "Iron Horse" fame, as Jiggs, proves an able ally to the redoubtable feminine pair in the matter of evolving comedy. The trio is irresistible.

ORANA PLAYERS
"The Man in the Ford," a comedy-drama of modern society life, opened last night at the Orana theatre at Orana, and brought laughter from the audience.

Tonight is to be "Clown Nite" at Orana, and the players will present, in conjunction with the regular show, for this one night only, a miniature frolic or after show of comedy bits and vaudeville.

The husbandless wives and their thousand children cost the parish council 700 pounds a week, or about $3500, which the authorities contribute toward their support.

FORMER OFFICIALS OF COURT JOBLESS

BERLIN, May 21.—Court officials, high and low, who found themselves out of a job when the revolution of 1918 swept German courts and thrones into limbo, have had an uphill fight in securing other employment. For humane reasons, the republican government undertook to find them situations wherever possible in the various grades of the civil service.

The ex-courtiers, of course, made as high estimates as they dared in assessing their income under the old regime. But in accordance with the general policy of cutting down expenditures, these figures have come recently under a closer scrutiny, with the result that it was found that these included all sorts of odd perquisites such as the value of cast-off royal and princely clothing, footwear and bedding, the free use of court carriages and flunkeys, free theater seats, free medical treatment, table and wine money, Christmas and New Year's gifts and tips for showing visitors around.

The ex-incumbents have now been notified that these items can not be allowed as part of "salaries" and they must accordingly be content with lower grade classifications in the service of the republican state. So in their case there are more laments than ever that "times aren't what they were."

Landing Gear For Planes Perfected

PARIS, May 21.—A French aviator, Paul Peullot, has perfected a landing equipment which will enable airplanes to come down anywhere on land, even on a mountainside, without danger of overturning.

In recent tests at Le Bourget, he replaced the landing wheels with caterpillar treads, and succeeded in landing in a field cut across with trenches two feet wide.

Transfer Desert To Eastern Park

NEW YORK, May 21.—The Mojave desert of Southern California has been reconstructed in miniature at the New York Botanical garden. Fifty species of living plants, in naturalistic groupings, are flourishing in a conservatory range at Bronx park.

The plants, together with sand and rocks of their native habitat, were brought across the continent by Mrs. A. Sherman Hoyt of the Pasadena Garden club.

The task was carried out at the expense of Mrs. Hoyt, primarily in behalf of the conservation committee of the Garden Club of America, which seeks to stimulate sentiment in favor of doing something to preserve the natural beauties of the American "deserts" before it is too late.

Even deserts, it would appear, are being encroached upon and transformed by those who would make them blossom in other ways than those that have been established by tens of thousands of years of adaptation to an arid environment.

Some of the desert plants, such as the "Desert Holly," have a commercial value and are in possible danger of extermination.
